BOOM TOWN DETROIT IN THE ROARING '20s

A PRESENTATION BY

JOEL STONE

SENIOR CURATOR, DETROIT HISTORICAL SOCIETY

HOSTED BY THE
YANKEE AIR MUSEUM

From the dust and smoke of the nineteenth century, Detroit burst into the national spotlight in the early twentieth century. The automobile business was at full throttle, resulting in a city that grew faster than any other on the continent. Adding to the excitement, national Prohibition created a demand for alcohol that our Canadian neighbors gladly addressed. Rum-running became the region's second largest industry. Conventions loved Detroit, and so did organized crime. It was the era when Boom Town met the Wild West.

Join us Wednesday, December 6th for a presentation by the Detroit Historical Society's Joel Stone on this fascinating, exciting, prosperous, dangerous, and unique period in Detroit history.
